“In All Kinds of Weather” (Read Acts 18:9-11)

Matthew 28:20 says, “Lo, I am with you always even to the end of the age.” When Jesus sent His disciples out, He gave them this promise: “I am with you always, even to the end of the age” (Matthew 28:20) literally, the word always means, “all the days,” according to Greek scholars Jamieson, Fausser, and Brown.

Jesus didn’t simply say “always” but “all the days.” That takes into account all our various activities, the good and bad circumstances surrounding us, the varied responsibilities we have through the course of our days, the storm clouds and the sunshine.

Our Lord is present with us no matter what each day brings. It may be a day of joy or of sadness, of sickness or of health, of success or of failure. No matter what happens to us today our Lord is walking beside us, strengthening us, loving us, filling us with faith, hope, and love. As He envelops us with quiet serenity and security our foes, fears, afflictions, and doubts begin to recede. We can bear up in any setting and circumstance because we know the Lord is at hand, just as He told Paul in Acts 18:10, “I am with you.”

Practice God’s presence, stopping in the midst of your busy day to say to yourself, “the Lord is here.” And pray that you will see Him who is invisible and see him everywhere.

“Seek the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near.” Isaiah 55:6

Growing together,
Pastor Ben

A Note From Our Treasurer – Linda Swift

Dover has truly been blessed the first 3 months of 2018 with above average contributions!! Our members and friends have been faithful in their giving to continue God’s work. We have voted to erect a steeple on our church and the out pouring of support financially for this endeavor has been very encouraging, as we continue to try to do the things pleasing to God

A note from the Music Man..... Bradley Gray

First off, Thank You to everyone that has made me feel so welcome at Dover! Your compliments are overwhelming and too gracious at times. I look forward to serving together with you for many months to come.

I don't always take compliments well because I truly strive to keep the focus on Jesus. That's what good worship and true worship is all about. I don't want hymns and anthems sung on Sunday mornings to just be time fillers leading up to the sermon. Music is supposed to soften the heart and prepare the person for the spoken Word of God.

That being said I'd like for you to contemplate these three things when thinking about worship:

- God is seeking true worshipers, that is to say He seeks those that make worship a daily priority and not a weekly ritual.
- True worshipers worship Him in spirit and truth from a heart that is right with God, a mind focused on who He is and what He has done for us on the cross.
- Will you make worship a priority so you can become a true worshiper of God? Worship is both corporate (together on Sunday) and personal (your day to day praise to God.)

Finally, one of the songs the choir and congregation will learn in the coming months says this: "You and I are made to worship, you and I are called to love. You and I are forgiven and free. When you and I embrace forever, when you and I choose to believe; you and I will see what we were meant to be!"

Keep on singing!
Bradley
