Issue 21

July – August – September

2018

USING TIME WELL: Read Matthew 25: 14-28

The Lord Gives Us Resources and Abilities, and He desires that we use them well. One such gift is time.

In order to manage our coming days effectively, we should continually review the one we've just lived: What activities did we choose? How much time did each take? What were the results? This discipline will reveal what is most important to us.

In looking closely at our assessments, we can determine what drives our decisions about how to use time. Some people merely respond to circumstances for a majority of their day. They jump from one thing to the next, handling whatever appears in their world at the moment whether personal, family, or business matters, but this style of living misses the mark.

Other people spend their time according to desires. They want to relax, so they get home and watch television for the evening. Or they love to hunt, so they use their time to research equipment and locate wild life in the forest. Desires are not bad, but they should not drive the bulk of our actions.

Thankfully, there are also people who live according to what they deem important. Loving God and serving others, for instance, are two biblical values that should ideally, determine what we do with our time.

If you itemize your activities and their time consumption over the course of a week, you might be surprised at which are the predominant events. Each moment is a gift, so set aside a few minutes each evening to plan the next day. Then revisit how you spent the last 24 hours. This will help you to live purposefully.

A Note From Our Treasurer – Linda Swift

The first 6 months of 2018 has been awesome for Dover, we have seen growth financially as well as precious new members. The steeple is about ready to install and we have received enough funds to pay for it. We look forward to the next months to see what God has in store for Dover in ways to serve His people. May God bless each of you for your faithfulness in giving of your time, talents and money to be used for God's glory!

A note from the Music Man..... Bradley Gray

I consider myself a student and fan of the old hymns; not because of their musical styling and notes, but because of their lyrics. The hymn writers of days gone by could turn a phrase and paint a picture unlike any writers that compose today. Nonetheless, both the writers of old and of today have special and warranted places in our worship.

One of the "old" hymns is "Why Do I Sing About Jesus?" For the Christian the title and chorus is a rhetorical question. The easy answer is "Who better is there to sing about?" But the writer does a great job in that hymn reminding us about why we sing about Him and furthermore, the reasons we SHOULD sing about Him:

Deep in my heart there's a gladness: Jesus has saved me from sin! Praise to His name, what a Savior! Cleansing with out and within! Why do I sing about Jesus? Why is He precious to me? He is my Lord and my Savior, Dying He set me free!

Don't ever forget or forsake the great gift of Jesus Christ and what He has done for all of us!

Keep on singing!

Bradley
